

NCA COMPETITIVE EVENTS

2022-2023 Update

September 1, 2022

This update summarizes major changes to the NCA Competitive Event Guidelines but is not an all-inclusive list. Changes to both the rating sheets and rules are made every year for consistency and clarity. Full event guidelines can be found every September at jag.org/competition.

GENERAL EVENT UPDATES

All Guidelines	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Formatting and flow improvements for each event guidelines • Slight adjustments to point values on some rubric categories and the subsequent total point change on events • Score sheets and champion tables previously included in each event’s guidelines have been separated into their own documents for CE Personnel use.
-----------------------	--

INDIVIDUAL EVENT UPDATES

Financial Literacy	Sample questions have been added to the end of the guidelines for reference.
NCA Knowledge Bowl	Sample questions have been added to the end of the guidelines for reference.
Prepared Speaking	2022-2023 Topic: How has Jobs for America’s Graduates (JAG) supported you in looking towards and preparing for the future?
NCA Service Project	At the 2022 National CDC, the NCA Delegate Assembly selected Habitat for Humanity as the 2023-2025 National Service Project. All volunteer hours and donations submitted for NCA Service Project Recognition must be in connection to Habitat for Humanity. No other projects or fundraisers for organizations will be considered.
Outstanding NCA Chapter	All submissions for the NCA Outstanding Chapter must use the Awards Unlimited NCA Scrapbook

NEW EVENT

L.O.V.E. Project	L.O.V.E. Project (Lifting Our Voices for Equity) is a new team competitive event for 2022-2023, sponsored by our IHG partners. The L.O.V.E. Project is intended to encourage youth to identify inequities in their community and work collectively to make a positive impact.
-------------------------	---

