KEYNOTE SPEAKER: SARAH WELLS

Sarah Wells, an Olympian and dynamic keynote speaker, is a leader in the field of cultivating excellence. With more than a decade of competition at the highest level, along with a master's degree in leadership & innovation from the Smith School of Business, Sarah delivers powerful, research-backed insights that unlock potential both personally and professionally.

Sarah's philosophy centers on the idea that excellence isn't about perfection—it's about breaking free from limiting beliefs and constantly striving to outperform who you were yesterday. She believes that when you dare to break the blueprint, chase crazy ideas, and focus on doing the small things exceptionally well, excellence becomes contagious, elevating not just your life but those around you.

Renowned for her practical strategies and compelling storytelling, Sarah empowers audiences to find their own excellence, transform challenges into opportunities for growth, and achieve lasting success.
